Florida House of Representatives – House Redistricting Committee Redistricting Update – January 28, 2011

FloridaRedistricting.Org Re-Launch

Today, we re-launched the Florida House of Representatives' redistricting website, www.floridaredistriking.org. With its new look and content, the site will serve as the House's hub of online information and communications regarding House redistricting activities throughout the process. In the coming months, www.floridaredistriking.org will help educate the public on redistricting, provide a portal to MyDistrictBuilder, and enable Floridians to start the conversation on redistricting. If you have not already, you are welcome to explore the alpha version of MyDistrictBuilder at <http://floridaredistriking.cloudapp.net/MyDistrictBuilder.aspx>. Enjoy!

Note, if you want to access the historical content that was previously on www.floridaredistriking.org, click on the "2002 Redistricting Site Archive" button on the new site.

How Can Floridians Participate in Redistricting?

Our "Public Participation" flyer offers some excellent ways that you and your community can get involved in the upcoming redistricting. Click here to download the pdf and print out.

Redistricting Resources

The latest National Conference of State Legislatures' (NCSL) Redistricting Conference included a number of helpful presentations on redistricting. All of these presentations and more have been posted to the NCSL website. Click here to access the full list materials from the conference.

As always, please feel free to let us know if you have any questions.

Hope you have a great weekend!
