Florida House of Representatives – House Redistricting Committee Redistricting Update – May 20, 2011

Updates to MyDistrictBuilder

We released some new features to MyDistrictBuilder this week. For example, do you want to build districts entire cities at a time? Now you can! Previously you could build by County, VTD or Blocks. You will see Places was added to the drop-down menu.

Visit www.floridaredistriking.org's blog for the full tally of changes to MyDistrictBuilder:

Updates to FloridaRedistricting.Org

Over the next week or so we will be implementing some changes to www.floridaredistriking.org. With the launch of our Blog & Resources page, www.floridaredistriking.org is taking on a more simplified role as a front page for an entire universe of information about Florida redistricting.

So what purposes will www.floridaredistriking.org serve in the near future?

- As we're about to begin public input meetings on redistricting throughout Florida, www.floridaredistriking.org will provide updates and access to scheduling information.
- The site will remain the best access point to MyDistrictBuilder.
- The site will provide public outreach, participation and educational materials.
- The site will provide introductions to the legal and legislative sides of redistricting.
- The site will offer insight into MyDistrictBuilder, including user help and support.

Public Participation Outreach - We Need Your Help

Late 2010, staff of the House Redistricting Committee began contacting numerous organizations about MyDistrictBuilder and other opportunities to participate in Florida's 2011-2012 redistricting process. We are now contacting these organizations a second time, updating them on the calendar for this summer's public meetings. To see the full list of who we've
