Update on Redistricting Plan Submissions

We have crossed the 40 plans submitted mark! That means that Florida residents have submitted more than 40 partial or complete redistricting maps for the State House, State Senate or Congress. You can view, comment on and share the public submissions by visiting the “Public Submissions” button at <http://www.floridaredistriking.org/>. In addition, you can even save a map’s files to your computer and open them up in the House’s MyDistrictBuilder application at <http://floridaredistriking.cloudapp.net/MyDistrictBuilder.aspx>. So if you see a map that you like, but you think it could use some improvement, you can use MyDistrictBuilder to make changes and resubmit the proposal with your revisions.
