Florida House of Representatives – House Redistricting Committee Redistricting Update – December 30, 2011

Proposed Redistricting Maps to be Considered on January 9

The Florida House's Redistricting subcommittees officially noticed meetings for Monday, January 9, 2012 – at which time they will consider proposed committee bills (PCBs) for the State House, State Senate and Congressional maps.

If you have not already, you can check out the proposed maps and related information via the Redistricting Bills button at www.floridaredistrioting.org (or directly at <http://www.myfloridahouse.gov/Sections/Redistricting/Redistricting2012.aspx>). The maps are identical to those that were released on December 6 and workshopped in the subcommittees on December 8, 2011.

The Congressional Redistricting Subcommittee and Senate Redistricting Subcommittee will both meet from 12:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. The House Redistricting Subcommittee will meet from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Want to watch the meetings live? Make sure to visit The Florida Channel at <http://thefloridachannel.org/> on January 9. Want to catch up on redistricting committee meetings you may have missed?
